

Remarks/Arguments

Attorney for Applicants submits this Letter in response to the Office Action dated July22, 2004.

Applicants have amended the Claims to correct certain typographical errors noted. The amendments are made solely for the purpose of placing the claims in proper form according to the mandates of 35 USC 112. It is believed that this response reflects the suggestions made by the Examiner to place the subject application in condition for allowance. Such action is respectfully solicited.

Applicants have reviewed the instant specification and find it in proper form for issuing as a patent. Further, Applicants have amended to claims of the subject application to correct certain noted typographical errors as suggested by the Examiner. Having made the instant review and corrected the typographical errors noted, it is believed that the application is in condition for allowance. Such action is respectfully solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
